SOUTH-CAROLINA AND COUNTRY GAZETTE & JOURNAL.

Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, MARCH 8, 1768.

MAXIMS for SOVEREIGN PRINCES.

1. A People may forſake their king, and ſtill continue a people; but if a king loſes his people, he is no more a king.

2. If a king ſuffers his paſſions to get the aſcendant of his reaſon, he is like a ſhip without a rudder or pilot, and is as much expoſed to his miniſters as a veſſel to the winds.

3. The king who ſets up his will againſt the laws of the land, wages war with his beſt friends.

4. If kings would conſider how liable they are to be miſled by their miniſters, they would be more circumſpect in the choice of them than they generally are.

5. When the king changes miniſters and not meaſures, he is like a ſot who only changes his liquors, and not his manner of living.

6. The king who confides in a miniſter that has once deceived him, is like a dupe in the hands of ſharpers.

7. A king ſhould never truſt a man who is diſhoneſt or profuſe in his own affairs; ſuch a perſon is not likely to be juſt or frugal in the management of public money.

8. A prince may be well aſſured that he who is incapable of conducting his own private affairs is not capable of being at the helm of government.

9. A wiſe king will never confer his favours on his courtiers in ſuch a manner as to loſe the favour of his ſubjects; nor will he protect a villain at the hazard of loſing the hearts of all honeſt men.

10. Finally, The king who wakes for his people's good, ſleeps in ſecurity without a guard.

LONDON, DECEMBER 24.

LETTERS from Rome adviſe, that the Pope was extremely alarmed at the news from Poland, and had juſt addreſſed briefs to the courts of Vienna, Verſailles, and Madrid, exhorting thoſe powers to employ their mediation, and even to interpoſe their forces, for re-eſtabliſhing the equilibrium, and reſtoring the tranquility of that kingdom.

A letter from Paris, dated December 16, runs thus: "The King has ordered the preſidents of the parliament of Paris to proceed in the liquidation of the debts in arrear; and appoints that, as the expences occaſioned by the late war do not admit of paying them in money, they ſhall be paid in ſecurities; for which intereſt ſhall be allowed to the reſpective creditors, that their private affairs may no longer ſuffer by the ſaid debts remaining unſatisfied."

Letters from Stockholm adviſe, that the laſt hand had juſt been put to the renewal of the ſubſidy treaty between the courts of Sweeden and France; by a private article of which, a ſtipulated number of capital ſhips were to be built for the ſervice of the latter, with all expedition.

According to the laſt advices from Stockholm, his Sweediſh Majeſty, in conſequence of a petition preſented to him by the proprietors of Mines had come to a reſolution of lowering the courſe of exchange in that kingdom.

By letters from France, there is advice, that the prince of Monaco propoſed to ſet out on a viſit to the Engliſh court, before his return to his own dominions.

They write from Jamaica, that his Excellency Admiral Parry had diſpatched a frigate of war and two Bermudian armed tenders, with letters to the Spaniſh governor of Campeachy, demanding the delivery of an Engliſh ſnow, belonging to New-Providence, lately taken by a guarda coſta, and condemned there, on pretence of illicit trade.

The write from Senegal, that two large corſairs, under Barbary colours, had lately appeared on that coaſt, and plundered ſeveral Engliſh veſſels, carrying off whatever they thought proper, and frequently mal-treating the people.

By letters from Glaſgow we learn, that the froſt had ſet in very ſevere in the Weſt Highlands of Scotland, where great numbers of the poor people were reduced to a ſtarving condition through the ſcarcity and dearneſs of all kinds of proviſions.

Yeſterday a chapter of the order of the Thiſtle was held at St. James's, when their graces the Dukes of Athol and Buccleuch, and the Earl of Carliſle (now abroad on his travels) were elected Knights of that antient order.

Some letters from Rome mention, that great numbers of the baniſhed Jeſuits were preparing to ſeek an aſylum in Paleſtine, his Holineſs having written in their favour to the Patriarch of Jeruſalem.

We hear from Guernſey, that upwards of 5000 Engliſh ſheep are conſtantly fed in the neighbourhood of Rouen in Normandy, and their number kept up by freſh ſupplies from this kingdom, for the benefit of their woollen manufactory carried on there.

Lord Clive intends ſhortly to ſet out for Italy, as his Lordſhip's health is much impaired, and this climate not agreeing with him in the cold weather.

DECEMBER 26. They write from Warſaw of December 5, that the Biſhop of Cracow, and the other Nobles whom the Ruſſian troops carried off, are ſtill at Wilna, and it becomes every day more apparent that they will not recover their liberty 'till the Grand Commiſſion and the Dyet ſhall have terminated their ſittings.

It is ſaid for certain, that the new miniſtry will be fixed on the broadeſt bottom poſſible, and that a moſt extenſive coalition of parties is actually on the tapis.

The wife of a man of fortune has been lately obliged to make her eſcape to France, after an attempt to poiſon her huſband.

It is one propoſition, we are told, in the preſent political plan, to add to the ſtrength, dignity, and permanency of adminiſtration, by the acquiſition of Earl Temple and Mr. George Grenville, in conſequence of terms too agreeable to the ſentiments of thoſe great perſonages for them to refuſe.

We hear that a moſt noble Marquis will come again into the adminiſtration; and that his Lordſhip has given up every point relative to a Right Hon. Gentleman now in a high ſtation, the ſaid Right Hon. Gentleman having declared his earneſt inclination to retire totally from all ſtate buſineſs whatever.

A certain great man, we are told, ſent up lately to town, inſiſting that another great man ſhould on no account be removed from a conſiderable employment; but it is added, that the perſon thus diſtinguiſhed by his friendſhip, replied, "Lord —— is very much obliged to Lord —— for his good offices, but he ſcorns to depend on any body for ſupport but himſelf."

Letters from Naples of the 24th ult. adviſe, that the report which was ſpread of an inſurrection of the inhabitants of Palermo, in Sicily, was deſignedly circulated to conceal the real deſtination of the ſquadron prepared to carry off the Jeſuits from Naples, and that no ſuch inſurrection hath happened.

A letter from Williamſburgh, in Virginia, dated October 28, ſays, "There is ſcarce a hiſtory, antient or modern, which affords an account of ſuch a rapid and ſudden increaſe of inhabitants in a back frontier country, as that of North-Carolina. To juſtify the truth of this obſervation, we need only to aſſure you, that 20 years ago there were not 20 taxable perſons within the limits of the county of Orange; in which they are now 4000 taxable. The increaſe of the inhabitants, and flouriſhing ſtate of the adjoining back-counties, are no leſs ſurpriſing and aſtoniſhing.

We hear that the free importation of ſalt beef, pork, bacon, and butter, from the Britiſh dominions in America, will be certainly admitted for a limited time.

DECEMBER 29. It is ſaid that the E. of C——m is no longer a Miniſter; and that the grand coalition will ſpeedily take place; which is immediately to ſtop all influence of another noble Earl, who is likewiſe to have no longer any concern in politics, either in the cloſet, the cabinet, or any where elſe.

It is reported, that a certain great man finding himſelf no longer able to look proud Connections in the Face, has at laſt agreed that the Coalition ſo long talked of ſhould take place, on condition that a certain number of his friends ſhould ſtill continue in their places.

A SPANISH ANECDOTE.

WHEN the mother of the late King of Spain was on her road towards Madrid, ſhe paſſed through a little town in Spain famous for its manufactory of gloves and ſtockings. The honeſt magiſtrates of the place thought they could never better expreſs their joy for the reception of their new Queen, than by preſenting her with a ſample of thoſe commodities, for which alone their town was remarkable. The Major Domo, who conducted the Queen, received the gloves very graciouſly: But when the ſtockings were preſented, he flung them away with great indignation, and ſeverely reprimanded the magiſtrates for this egregious piece of indecency. "Know, ſays he, that a Queen of Spain has no legs." The poor young Queen, who at that time, underſtood the language but very imperfectly, and had been often frightened with ſtories of Spaniſh jealouſy, imagined that they were to cut off her legs. Upon which ſhe fell a crying, and begged them to conduct her to Germany; for that ſhe never could endure that operation: And it was with much difficulty they could appeaſe her. Philip IV. is ſaid never in his life to have laughed heartily, but at the recital of this ſtory.

LETTERS from a FARMER in PENNSYLVANIA, to the Inhabitants of the BRITISH COLONIES.

LETTER VIII.

My dear Countrymen,

IN my opinion, a dangerous example is ſet in the laſt act relating to theſe colonies. The power of parliament to levy money upon us for raiſing a revenue, is therein avowed and exerted. Regarding the act on this ſingle principle, I muſt again repeat, and I think it my duty to repeat, that to me it appears to be unconſtitutional.

No man, who conſiders the conduct of the parliament ſince the repeal of the Stamp-Act, and the diſpoſition of many people at home, can doubt, that the chief object of attention there, is, to uſe Mr. Grenville's expreſſion, "providing that the DEPENDANCE and OBEDIENCE of the colonies be aſſerted and maintained."

Under the influence of this notion, inſtantly on repealing the Stamp-Act, an act paſſed, declaring the power of parliament to bind theſe colonies in all caſes whatever. This however was only planting a barren tree, that caſt a ſhade indeed over the colonies, but yielded no fruit. It being determined to enforce the authority on which the Stamp-Act was founded, the parliament having never renounced the right, as Mr. Pitt adviſed them to do; and it being thought proper to diſguiſe that authority in ſuch a manner, as not again to alarm the colonies; ſome little time was required to find a method, by which both theſe points ſhould be united. At laſt the ingenuity of Mr. Greenville and his party accompliſhed the matter, as it was thought, in "an act for granting certain duties in the Britiſh colonies and plantations in America, for allowing drawbacks," &c. which is the title of the act laying duties on paper, &c.

The parliament having ſeveral times before impoſed duties to be paid in America, IT WAS EXPECTED, NO DOUBT, THAT THE REPETITION OF SUCH A MEASURE WOULD BE PASSED OVER, AS AN USUAL THING. But to have done this, without expreſly "aſſerting and maintaining" the power of parliament to take our money without our conſent, and to apply it as they pleaſe, would not have been ſufficiently declarative of its ſupremacy, nor ſufficiently depreſſive of American freedom.

Therefore it is, that in this memorable act we find it expreſly "provided," that money ſhall be levied upon us without our conſent, for PURPOSES, that render it, if poſſible, more dreadful than the Stamp-Act.

That act, alarming as it was, declared, the money thereby to be raiſed, ſhould be applied "towards defraying the expences of defending, protecting and ſecuring the Britiſh colonies and plantations in America:" And it is evident from the whole act, that by the word "Britiſh," were intended colonies and plantations ſettled by Britiſh people, and not generally, thoſe ſubject to the Britiſh crown. That act therefore ſeemed to have ſomething gentle and kind in its intention, and to aim only at our own welfare: But the act now objected to, impoſes duties upon the Britiſh colonies, "to defray the expences of defending, protecting and ſecuring his Majeſty's DOMINIONS in America."

What a change of words! What an incomputable addition to the expences intended by the Stamp-Act! "His Majeſty's DOMINIONS" comprehend not only the Britiſh colonies, but alſo the conquered provinces of Canada and Florida, and the Britiſh garriſons of Nova-Scotia; for theſe do not deſerve the name of colonies.

What juſtice is there in making us pay for "defending, protecting and ſecuring" THESE PLACES? What benefit can we, or have we ever derived from them? None of them was conquered for US; nor will "be defended, protected or ſecured" for US.

In fact, however advantageous the ſubduing or keeping any of theſe countries may be to Great-Britain, the acquiſition is greatly injurious to theſe colonies. Our chief property conſiſts in lands. Theſe would have been of a much greater value, if ſuch prodigious additions had not been made to the Britiſh territories on this continent. The natural increaſe of our own people, if confined within the colonies, would have raiſed the value ſtill higher and higher every fifteen or twenty years: Beſides, we ſhould have lived more compactly together, and have been therefore more able to reſiſt any enemy. But now the inhabitants will be thinly ſcattered over an immenſe region, as thoſe who want ſettlements, will chuſe to make new ones, rather than pay great prices for old ones.

Theſe are the conſequences to the colonies, of the hearty aſſiſtance they gave to Great-Britain in the late war——a war undertaken ſolely for her own benefit. The objects of it were, the ſecuring to herſelf the rich tracts of land on the back of theſe colonies, with the Indian trade; and Nova-Scotia, with the fiſhery. Theſe, and much more, but that kingdom gained; but the inferior animals, that hunted with the lion, has been amply rewarded for all the ſweat and blood their loyalty coſt them, by the honour of having ſweated and bled in ſuch company.

I will not go ſo far as to ſay, that Canada and Nova-Scotia are curbs on New-England; the chain of forts through the back woods, on the Middle Provinces; and Florida, on the reſt: But I will venture to ſay, that if the products of Canada, Nova-Scotia, and Florida, deſerve any conſideration, the two firſt of them are only rivals of our Northern colonies, and the other of our Southern.

It has been ſaid, that without the conqueſt of theſe countries, the colonies could not have been "protected, defended and ſecured:" If that is true, it may with as much propriety be ſaid, that Great-Britain could not have been "defended, protected and ſecured," without that conqueſt: For the colonies are parts of her empire, which it as much concerns her as them to keep out of the hands of any other power.

but these colonies, when they were much weaker, defended themselves, before the conquest was made; and could again do it, against any that might properly be called their enemies. If France and Spain indeed should attack them, as members of the British empire, perhaps they might be distressed; but it would be in a British quarrel.

The largest account I have seen of the number of people in Canada, does not make them exceed 90,000. Florida can hardly be said to have any inhabitants. It is computed that there are in our colonies 3,000,000. Our force therefore must increase with a disproportion to the growth of their strength, that would render us very safe.

This being the state of the case, I cannot think it just that these colonies, labouring under so many misfortunes, should be loaded with taxes, to maintain countries, not only not useful, but hurtful to them. The support of Canada and Florida cost yearly, it is said, half a million sterling. From hence, we may make some guess of the load that is to be laid upon US; for WE are not only to "defend, protect and secure" them, but also to make "an adequate provision for defraying the charge of the administration of justice, and the support of civil government, in such provinces where it shall be found necessary."

Not one of the provinces of Canada, Nova-Scotia, or Florida, has ever defrayed these expences WITHIN ITSELF: And if the duties imposed by the last statute are collected, all of them together, according to the best information I can get, will not pay one quarter as much as Pennsylvania alone. So that the British colonies are to be drained of the rewards of their labour, to cherish the scorching sands of Florida, and the icy rocks of Canada and Nova-Scotia, which never will return to us one farthing that we send to them.

Great-Britain——I mean, the ministry in Great-Britain, has cantoned Canada and Florida out into five or six governments, and may form as many more. She now has fourteen or fifteen regiments on this continent; and may send over as many more. To make "an adequate provision" FOR ALL THESE EXPENCES, is, no doubt, to be the inheritance of the colonies.

Can any man believe that the duties upon paper, &c. are the last that will be laid for these purposes? It is in vain to hope, that because it is imprudent to lay duties on the exportation of manufactures from a mother country to colonies, as it may promote manufactures among them, that this consideration will prevent such a measure.

Ambitious, artful men, have made it popular, and whatever injustice or destruction will attend it in the opinion of the colonists, at home it will be thought just and salutary.

The people of Great-Britain will be told, and have been told, that they are sinking under an immense debt——that great part of this debt has been contracted in defending the colonies——that these are so ungrateful and undutiful, that they will not contribute one mite to its payment——nor even to the support of the army now kept up for their "defence and security"——that they are rolling in wealth; and are of so bold and republican a spirit, that they are aiming at independance——that the only way to retain them in "obedience" is to keep a strict watch over them, and to draw off part of their riches in taxes——and that every burden laid upon them is taking off so much from Great-Britain. ——These assertions will be generally believed, and the people will be persuaded that they cannot be too angry with their colonies, as that anger will be profitable to themselves.

In truth, Great-Britain alone receives any benefit from Canada, Nova-Scotia and Florida; and therefore she alone ought to maintain them. The old maxim of the law is drawn from reason and justice, and never could be more properly applied, than in this case.

Qui sentit commodum, sentire debet et onus.

They who feel the benefit, ought to feel the burden.

LONDON, DECEMBER 30.

A COMMISSION is preparing to pass the great seal for appointing a new board for the management of the affairs of the North-American colonies, for which the right hon. the earl of Hillsborough is appointed secretary, and the office, it is said, will be at Whitehall.

JANUARY 1. Yesterday morning an express arrived at the secretary of state's office, from his excellency the lord lieutenant of Ireland, with dispatches, said to be of great importance.

We are informed, that new instructions are preparing to be sent to all our governors and commanders in North-America.

It is talked, that a new board of trade and plantations will be appointed in a few days.

Extract of a letter from Paris, dated December 19.

"Twelve hundred workmen are actually employed about the new city which the government of France hath resolved to build on the borders of the lake of Geneva, half a league from that place. It is to be called, 'Choiseul city.' The project appears to be, to draw thither the trade of Geneva, and especially a number of French refugees. It is asserted that toleration will be allowed there for all religions. This place is, however, in France, in the county of Gex. This resolution is considered as the presage of a permission for those subjects, whom the fatal revocation of the edict of Nantes hath carried away, to re-enter the kingdom."

We hear that James Burraw, Esq; late of the customs at Glasgow, is appointed a Revenue officer in America.

JANUARY 2. We hear if a noble marquis comes into the administration, that his lordship is not to hold the same post as before.

Whatever alterations take place, we are told that his grace the duke of Grafton will most certainly continue at the head of the treasury.

We hear that a survey is soon to be made of all the forfeited estates in Scotland, in order to ascertain their real value.

We hear that Mr. Obrien, the celebrated actor, is shortly to return from America, with his lady.

Yesterday afternoon Henry Potts, esq; secretary to the general post-office, took a coach in St. Paul's church yard, to go to his house in Pall-Mall; and having ordered the coachman to stop at the pastry-cook's shop the corner of Spring-gardens, when the man opened the coach door he found Mr. Potts dead.

Some letters from the Hague advise, that couriers are frequently arriving there from Berlin, which causes much speculation among the politicians in Holland.

We are told that three expresses have been dispatched this week to sir Joseph Yorke, ambassador at the Hague.

It is said that two deputies from Corsica are daily expected in order to lay some very material affairs before the government.

JANUARY 4. Robert Wood, Esq; member for Brackley, is appointed chief secretary to lord Weymouth, who succeeds general Conway in the northern department.

CHARLES-TOWN, MARCH 8.

LAST Monday Week was brought to the Goal in this Town, by Mr. Thomas Woodward, the two following Horse-Thieves, Ebenezer Wells, and Absolom Tilley, with four Negroes who had been stolen by some of their Gang, viz. Timothy Tyrrel, Govey Black, Christopher Marr, and others; three of the Negroes belonged to the Honourable John Drayton, Esq; and the other to William Williamson, Esquire. Mr. Woodward and five other Men set out after, and pursued them into Virginia, where they apprehended them upon New-River, near Colonel Chiswell's Mines.

Sunday last sailed the Brig Philadelphia-Packet, Captain Harrison, for Philadelphia, with whom went Passengers, Mr. Chew and Mr. Shoemaker, both of that Place.

By Advices from Pensacola, we learn, that Don Juan Antonia d'Ulloa, the Spanish Governor, having been at length joined by the Spanish Forces at Balise, had the Remains of the French Dominions in North-America delivered into their Possession, whereupon the French, to avoid being governed by the Spaniards, for whom they express an utter Aversion, have moved to the East Side of Lake Ponchartrain, in West-Florida, choosing rather to live under an English than a Spanish Government.

The King having repealed the Act passed by the Colony of Virginia, for establishing, on a public Stock, a Trade with the Cherokee and other Indians, and appointing Commissioners for that Purpose; they have agreed to raise a Sum to satisfy the Relations of those nine Cherokee Indians that were murdered in that Province, at the Rate of 500 lb. Weight of Indian dressed Leather for each Indian so killed, and to acquaint the Indians by a Talk, that the Perpetrators of that Fact could not be brought to Justice.

We learn that a considerable Settlement is intended to be made at the Natches in West-Florida, as many Grants for Lands in that fine Country have lately been applied for, and issued by his Honour Lieutenant Governor Brown.

A Letter from the Lower Creek Country, dated 8th ult. informs us that about three Weeks before, some of the Upper Creek Indians, hunting beyond the Coosaw River, were attacked by a Party of Chickesaws, who killed ten and wounded eleven, without any loss to themselves. This is thought to be in Revenge for five Chickesaws killed some Months ago by the Creeks, who endeavoured to excuse themselves by saying they took the Chickesaws for their Enemies the Choctaws. The Lower Creeks are in great Consternation, and have sent off Runners to solicit a Peace, but the Relations of the killed, in the upper Towns, are fitting out several Parties to go to War against the Chickesaws. A Letter from Augusta of the 24th ult. says that they have just been informed that the Creeks had killed five or six Cherokees, among whom it is thought was Ottassicé or Judd's Friend. The Creeks have now to cope with the numerous Nation of Choctaws, and the brave and intrepid Chickesaws. Should their attacking the Cherokees be confirmed, as the other Particulars are, those haughty and insolent Savages will be humbled without much Expence to Government, especially if the Negotiations for a Peace between the Cherokees and the Northern Indians is effected, and they be thereby left at Liberty to turn their Arms against the Creeks only.

This Day the Brig Prince of Wales, Thomas Mason, Master, sails for Philadelphia.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable the Earl of SHELBURNE, one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, hath transmitted to me a Minute of his Majesty in his most Honourable Privy-Council, signifying, that an Act of the General Assembly of this Province, entitled, "An Act for establishing "a Parish in Berkley County, by the Name of St. Matthew, "and for declaring the Road therein mentioned to be a pub-"lick Road;" together with a Representation from the Lords Commissioners of Trade and Plantations thereupon, having been referred to the Consideration of a Committee of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy-Council for Plantation Affairs; the said Lords of the Committee had reported as their Opinion to his Majesty, that the said Act ought to be repealed; and his Majesty having taken the same into Consideration, was pleased by the Advice of his Privy-Council, to declare his Disallowance of the said Act: And pursuant to his Majesty's Royal Pleasure thereupon expressed, the said Act was thereby REPEALED, and declared Void and of none Effect, I HAVE THEREFORE issued this my Proclamation, hereby notifying the same, and requiring all Persons whom it may concern, to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly.

THEODORE GOUAUDIN,

WHEREAS many falsehoods and scandalous reports have been industriously propagated against me, by some of my professed enemies amongst the gentry called REGULATORS, in the back parts of this province, calculated to answer some evil designs; and to give a colourable sanction of truth to such their assertions, they have in a rebellious manner, and in open defiance of all laws, order and good government, assembled to the number of forty at my house, on or about the sixteenth day of October last, and frightened my wife and family into terrors easier imagined than expressed; and for no other reason, as I hope to make appear, than the number of their associates that I have, from time to time, since I was honoured with the commission of the peace, committed to Charles-Town gaol, and my unceasing endeavours, well known about the Congarees and the Ridge, to keep in awe, bring to justice, and punish with impunity, all offenders in general. But least my friends, or the public should be induced to repose any faith or confidence in such rumors, I take this method of referring them, and particularly my superiors, to my character and conduct in my public and private stations, for twenty years past that I have resided in this province; in which time I have with great labour attended, often times with the greatest danger of my life, apprehended and committed to said gaol above forty-two horse-thieves, robbers, and other offenders; from severals of which I refused and scorned to accept of any terms that might exculpate them. I have taken my remedy at law against the principal founder of these reports, which I shall prosecute with effect, and hope that notwithstanding his knowing me these six weeks past to be under the care of a doctor, confined to my room, (and therefore not able to solicit remedy for those grievances that brought me to Charles-Town) and his industry in availing himself of my indisposition, by endeavouring to stamp these false accusations into currency upon the minds of the better sort, with the vain hope of prepossessing the public, and laying a foundation to induce my superiors to strike me out of the commission of the peace, and bring about a disappointment of my recovering damages in the said action; but right and justice is not to be so trifleingly altered in Carolina; neither do I fear being divested of any office I hold, without a fair and impartial trial, and the rather as I am ready and willing to answer to any matter or thing that can be fabricated or alledged against me, confident of the honour and veracity of a Carolina jury, before whom I expect and wish for an opportunity of clearing up those matters, by the testimony of undeniable men of property and consequence, to the satisfaction of the lovers of honour and truth. JOSEPH CURRY.

RUN-AWAY from the subscriber's plantation at Ashepoo, last October, a Negro fellow named CATO, about five feet four inches high, twenty-eight years old, of a very black complexion, with a very flat nose, large nostrils, and a little knock-kneed. He is a Guinea born, but speaks pretty good English; as he went away so early in the autumn, he must be very bare of cloaths, by this time.

Also, an Ebo fellow named SYPHAX, about 20 years old, little more than five feet high, well set, and walks parrot-toed; he went away from Tulifinny plantation some time in January, and took with him a suit of white negro cloth cloaths quite new; about the end of the same month, he was carried by a white man in the habit of a Sailor, to Major Samuel Elliott's plantation on Godfrey's Savannah, but the overseer refusing to take the fellow and pay for apprehending him, the man carried him away, (supposed by the overseer to take him to me) since which neither sailor or negro have been heard of. The white man was much about the height of the negro, but not so thick in body, and said he came from Virginia.

Also, a wench named SARAH, born in this country, about 30 years old, and pretty fat, she has lost her upper fore teeth, speaks very proper, and dresses very well, is seldom without shoes and stockings, shift, cap and blue handkerchief about her neck. She was bought by Mr. Robert Smyth at Mr. Jonathan Drake's vendue at Mr. Nightingale's, and since sold to the subscriber; she is a tolerable good cook and washer, and had a husband who belongs to the honourable John Burn, where it is probable she may be entertained, or if not there, perhaps in the neighbourhood of Goose-Creek, at the said Drake's plantation on Back River, by some of her relations.

Whoever will deliver either of the negroes to the warden of the work-house, to either of the subscriber's overseers, or to himself, shall have TEN POUNDS reward for each, exclusive of travelling charges; but whoever will apprehend the white man in possession of Syphax, and will deliver him to me, so that he may be made an example of, shall have FIFTY POUNDS reward.

tbcf BARNARD ELLIOTT.

RUN away from me lately, a short thick black fellow, named PHILANDER, well known in and about Charles-Town, where its imagined he is harboured. A reward of TWO DOLLARS is offered to any person who will deliver him to the warden of the work-house.

...their colonies, when they were much weaker, defended themselves, before the conquest was made; and could again do it, against any that might properly be called their enemies. If France and Spain indeed should attack them, as members of the British empire, perhaps they might be distressed; but it would be in a British quarrel.

The largest account I have seen of the number of people in Canada, does not make them exceed 90,000. Florida can hardly be said to have any inhabitants. It is computed that there are in our colonies 3,000,000. Our force therefore must increase with a disproportion to the growth of their strength, that would render us very safe.

This being the state of the case, I cannot think it just that these colonies, labouring under so many misfortunes, should be loaded with taxes, to maintain countries, not only not useful, but hurtful to them. The support of Canada and Florida cost yearly, it is said, half a million sterling. From hence, we may make some guess of the load that is to be laid upon US; for WE are not only to "defend, protect and secure" them, but also to make "an adequate provision for defraying the charge of the administration of justice, and the support of civil government, in such provinces where it shall be found necessary."

Not one of the provinces of Canada, Nova-Scotia, or Florida, has ever defrayed these expences WITHIN ITSELF: And if the duties imposed by the last statute are collected, all of them together, according to the best information I can get, will not pay one quarter as much as Pennsylvania alone. So that the British colonies are to be drained of the rewards of their labour, to cherish the scorching sands of Florida, and the icy rocks of Canada and Nova-Scotia, which never will return to us one farthing that we send to them.

Great-Britain——I mean, the ministry in Great-Britain, has cantoned Canada and Florida out into five or six governments, and may form as many more. She now has fourteen or fifteen regiments on this continent; and may send over as many more. To make "an adequate provision" FOR ALL THESE EXPENCES, is, no doubt, to be the inheritance of the colonies.

Can any man believe that the duties upon paper, &c. are the last that will be laid for these purposes? It is in vain to hope, that because it is imprudent to lay duties on the exportation of manufactures from a mother country to colonies, as it may promote manufactures among them, that this consideration will prevent such a measure.

Ambitious, artful men, have made it popular, and whatever injustice or destruction will attend it in the opinion of the colonists, at home it will be thought just and salutary.

The people of Great-Britain will be told, and have been told, that they are sinking under an immense debt——that great part of this debt has been contracted in defending the colonies——that these are so ungrateful and undutiful, that they will not contribute one mite to its payment——nor even to the support of the army now kept up for their "defence and security"——that they are rolling in wealth; and are of so bold and republican a spirit, that they are aiming at independance——that the only way to retain them in "obedience" is to keep a strict watch over them, and to draw off part of their riches in taxes——and that every burden laid upon them is taking off so much from Great-Britain. —— These assertions will be generally believed, and the people will be persuaded that they cannot be too angry with their colonies, as that anger will be profitable to themselves.

In truth, Great-Britain alone receives any benefit from Canada, Nova-Scotia and Florida; and therefore she alone ought to maintain them. The old maxim of the law is drawn from reason and justice, and never could be more properly applied, than in this case.

Qui sentit commodum, sentire debet et onus.

They who feel the benefit, ought to feel the burden.

LONDON, DECEMBER 30.

A COMMISSION is preparing to pass the great seal for appointing a new board for the management of the affairs of the North-American colonies, for which the right hon. the earl of Hillsborough is appointed secretary, and the office, it is said, will be at Whitehall.

JANUARY 1. Yesterday morning an express arrived at the secretary of state's office, from his excellency the lord lieutenant of Ireland, with dispatches, said to be of great importance.

We are informed, that new instructions are preparing to be sent to all our governors and commanders in North-America.

It is talked, that a new board of trade and plantations will be appointed in a few days.

Extract of a letter from Paris, dated December 19.

"Twelve hundred workmen are actually employed about the new city which the government of France hath resolved to build on the borders of the lake of Geneva, half a league from that place. It is to be called, 'Choiseul city.' The project appears to be, to draw thither the trade of Geneva, and especially a number of French refugees. It is asserted that toleration will be allowed there for all religions. This place is, however, in France, in the county of Gex. This resolution is considered as the presage of a permission for those subjects, whom the fatal revocation of the edict of Nantes hath carried away, to re-enter the kingdom."

We hear that James Burraw, Esq; late of the customs at Glasgow, is appointed a Revenue officer in America.

JANUARY 2. We hear if a noble marquis comes into the administration, that his lordship is not to hold the same post as before.

Whatever alterations take place, we are told that his grace the duke of Grafton will most certainly continue at the head of the treasury.

We hear that a survey is soon to be made of all the forfeited estates in Scotland, in order to ascertain their real value.

We hear that Mr. Obrien, the celebrated actor, is shortly to return from America, with his lady.

Yesterday afternoon Henry Potts, esq; secretary to the general post-office, took a coach in St. Paul's church yard, to go to his house in Pall-Mall; and having ordered the coachman to stop at the pastry-cook's shop the corner of Spring-gardens, when the man opened the coach door he found Mr. Potts dead.

Some letters from the Hague advise, that couriers are frequently arriving there from Berlin, which causes much speculation among the politicians in Holland.

We are said that three expresses have been dispatched this week to sir Joseph Yorke, ambassador at the Hague.

It is said that two deputies from Corsica are daily expected in order to lay some very material affairs before the government.

JANUARY 4. Robert Wood, Esq; member for Brackley, is appointed chief secretary to lord Weymouth, who succeeds general Conway in the northern department.

CHARLES-TOWN, MARCH 8.

LAST Monday Week was brought to the Goal in this Town, by Mr. Thomas Woodward, the two following Horse-Thieves, Ebenezer Wells, and Absolom Tilley, with four Negroes who had been stolen by some of their Gang, viz. Timothy Tyrrel, Govey Black, Christopher Marr, and others; three of the Negroes belonged to the Honourable John Drayton, Esq; and the other to William Williamson, Esquire. Mr. Woodward and five other Men set out after, and pursued them into Virginia, where they apprehended them upon New-River, near Colonel Chiswell's Mines.

Sunday last sailed the Brig Philadelphia-Packet, Captain Harrison, for Philadelphia, with whom went Passengers, Mr. Chew and Mr. Shoemaker, both of that Place.

By Advices from Pensacola, we learn, that Don Juan Antonia d'Ulloa, the Spanish Governor, having been at length joined by the Spanish Forces at Balise, had the Remains of the French Dominions in North-America delivered into their Possession, whereupon the French, to avoid being governed by the Spaniards, for whom they express an utter Aversion, have moved to the East Side of Lake Ponchartrain, in West-Florida, choosing rather to live under an English than a Spanish Government.

The King having repealed the Act passed by the Colony of Virginia, for establishing, on a public Stock, a Trade with the Cherokee and other Indians, and appointing Commissioners for that Purpose; they have agreed to raise a Sum to satisfy the Relations of those nine Cherokee Indians that were murdered in that Province, at the Rate of 500 lb. Weight of Indian dressed Leather for each Indian so killed, and to acquaint the Indians by a Talk, that the Perpetrators of that Fact could not be brought to Justice.

We learn that a considerable Settlement is intended to be made at the Natches in West-Florida, as many Grants for Lands in that fine Country have lately been applied for, and issued by his Honour Lieutenant Governor Brown.

A Letter from the Lower Creek Country, dated 8th ult. informs us that about three Weeks before, some of the Upper Creek Indians, hunting beyond the Coosaw River, were attacked by a Party of Chickesaws, who killed ten and wounded eleven, without any loss to themselves. This is thought to be in Revenge for five Chickesaws killed some Months ago by the Creeks, who endeavoured to excuse themselves by saying they took the Chickesaws for their Enemies the Choctaws. The Lower Creeks are in great Consternation, and have sent off Runners to solicit a Peace, but the Relations of the killed, in the upper Towns, are fitting out several Parties to go to War against the Chickesaws. A Letter from Augusta of the 24th ult. says that they have just been informed that the Creeks had killed five or six Cherokees, among whom it is thought was Ottassicé or Judd's Friend. The Creeks have now to cope with the numerous Nation of Choctaws, and the brave and intrepid Chickesaws. Should their attacking the Cherokees be confirmed, as the other Particulars are, those haughty and insolent Savages will be humbled without much Expence to Government, especially if the Negotiations for a Peace between the Cherokees and the Northern Indians is effected, and they be thereby left at Liberty to turn their Arms against the Creeks only.

This Day the Brig Prince of Wales, Thomas Mason, Master, sails for Philadelphia.

THESE are to give notice to all

THEODORE GOURDIN,

WHEREAS many falsehoods and scandalous reports have been industriously propagated against me, by some of my professed enemies amongst the gentry called REGULATORS, in the back parts of this province, calculated to answer some evil designs; and to give a colourable sanction of truth to such their assertions, they have in a rebellious manner, and in open defiance of all laws, order and good government, assembled to the number of forty at my house, on or about the sixteenth day of October last, and frightened my wife and family into terrors easier imagined than expressed; and for no other reason, as I hope to make appear, than the number of their associates that I have, from time to time, since I was honoured with the commission of the peace, committed to Charles-Town gaol, and my unceasing endeavours, well known about the Congarees and the Ridge, to keep in awe, bring to justice, and punish with impunity, all offenders in general. But least my friends, or the public should be induced to repose any faith or confidence in such rumors, I take this method of referring them, and particularly my superiors, to my character and conduct in my public and private stations, for twenty years past that I have resided in this province; in which time I have with great labour attended, often times with the greatest danger of my life, apprehended and committed to said gaol above forty-two horse-thieves, robbers, and other offenders; from severals of which I refused and scorned to accept of any terms that might exculpate them. I have taken my remedy at law against the principal founder of these reports, which I shall prosecute with effect, and hope that notwithstanding his knowing me these six weeks past to be under the care of a doctor, confined to my room, (and therefore not able to solicit remedy for those grievances that bro't me to Charles-Town) and his industry in availing himself of my indisposition, by endeavouring to stamp these false accusations into currency upon the minds of the better sort, with the vain hope of prepossessing the public, and laying a foundation to induce my superiors to strike me out of the commission of the peace, and bring about a disappointment of my recovering damages in the said action; but right and justice is not to be so trifleingly altered in Carolina; neither do I fear being divested of any office I hold, without a fair and impartial trial, and the rather as I am ready and willing to answer to any matter or thing that can be fabricated or alledged against me, confident of the honour and veracity of a Carolina jury, before whom I expect and wish for an opportunity of clearing up those matters, by the testimony of undeniable men of property and consequence, to the satisfaction of the lovers of honour and truth. JOSEPH CURRY.

RUN-AWAY from the subscriber's plantation at Ashepoo, last October, a Negro fellow named CATO, about five feet four inches high, twenty-eight years old, of a very black complexion, with a very flat nose, large nostrils, and a little knock-kneed. He is a Guinea born, but speaks pretty good English; as he went away so early in the autumn, he must be very bare of cloaths, by this time.

Also, an Ebo fellow named SYPHAX, about 20 years old, little more than five feet high, well set, and walks parrot-toed; he went away from Tulifinny plantation some time in January, and took with him a suit of white negro cloth cloaths quite new; about the end of the same month, he was carried by a white man in the habit of a Sailor, to Major Samuel Elliott's plantation on Godfrey's Savannah, but the overseer refusing to take the fellow and pay for apprehending him, the man carried him away, (supposed by the overseer to take him to me) since which neither sailor or negro have been heard of. The white man was much about the height of the negro, but not so thick in body, and said he came from Virginia.

Also, a wench named SARAH, born in this country, about 30 years old, and pretty fat, she has lost her upper fore teeth, speaks very proper, and dresses very well, is seldom without shoes and stockings, shift, cap and blue handkerchief about her neck. She was bought by Mr. Robert Smyth at Mr. Jonathan Drake's vendue at Mr. Nightingale's, and since sold to the subscriber; she is a tolerable good cook and washer, and had a husband who belongs to the honourable John Burn, where it is probable she may be entertained, or if not there, perhaps in the neighbourhood of Goose-Creek, at the said Drake's plantation on Back River, by some of her relations.

Whoever will deliver either of the negroes to the warden of the work-house, to either of the subscriber's overseers, or to himself, shall have TEN POUNDS reward for each, exclusive of travelling charges; but whoever will apprehend the white man in possession of Syphax, and will deliver him to me, so that he may be made an example of, shall have FIFTY POUNDS reward.

tbcf BARNARD ELLIOTT.

RUN away from me lately, a short thick black fellow, named PHILANDER, well known in and about Charles-Town, where its imagined he is harboured. A reward of TWO DOLLARS is offered to any person who will deliver him to the warden of the work-house.

LETTERS from a FARMER in PENNSYLVANIA, to the Inhabitants of the BRITISH COLONIES.

LETTER IX.

My dear Countrymen,

I HAVE made ſome obſervations on the PURPOSES for which money is to be levied upon us by the late act of parliament. I ſhall now offer to your conſideration ſome further reflections on that ſubject: And, unleſs I am greatly miſtaken, if theſe purpoſes are accompliſhed according to the expreſſed intention of the act, they will be found effectually to ſuperſede that authority in our reſpective aſſemblies, which is eſſential to liberty. The queſtion is not, whether ſome branches ſhall be lopt off—The axe is laid to the root of the tree; and the whole body muſt infallibly periſh, if we remain idle ſpectators of the work.

No free people ever exiſted, or can ever exiſt, without keeping, to uſe a common, but ſtrong expreſſion, "the purſe ſtrings," in their own hands. Where this is the caſe, they have a conſtitutional check upon the adminiſtration, which may thereby be brought into order without violence: But where ſuch a power is not lodged in the people, oppreſſion proceeds uncontrouled in its career, till the governed, tranſported into rage, ſeek redreſs in the midſt of blood and confuſion.

The elegant and engenious Mr. Hume, ſpeaking of the Anglo Norman government, ſays—"Princes and Miniſters were too ignorant, to be themſelves ſenſible of the advantage attending an equitable adminiſtration, and there was no eſtabliſhed council or aſſembly, WHICH COULD PROTECT THE PEOPLE, and BY WITHDRAWING SUPPLIES regularly and PEACEABLY admoniſh the King of his duty, and ENSURE THE EXECUTION OF THE LAWS."

Thus this great man, whoſe political reflections are ſo much admired, makes this power one of the foundations of liberty.

The Engliſh hiſtory abounds with inſtances proving that this is the proper and ſucceſsful way to obtain redreſs of grievances. How often have Kings and Miniſters endeavoured to throw off this legal curb upon them, by attempting to raiſe money by a variety of inventions under pretence of law, without having recourſe to parliament? And how often have they been brought to reaſon, and peaceably obliged to do juſtice, by the exertion of this conſtitutional authority of the people, veſted in their repreſentatives?

The inhabitants of theſe colonies have, on numberleſs occaſions, reaped the benefit of this authority lodged in their aſſemblies.

It has been for a long time, and now is a conſtant inſtruction to all governors, to obtain a PERMANENT ſupport for the offices of government. But as the author of "The adminiſtration of the colonies" ſays, "This order of the crown is generally, if not univerſally, rejected by the legiſlatures of the colonies."

They perfectly know how much their grievances would be regarded, if they had no other method of engaging attention, than by complaining. Thoſe who rule, are extremely apt to think well of the conſtructions made by themſelves in ſupport of their own power. Theſe are frequently erroneous, and pernicious to thoſe they govern. Dry remonſtrances to ſhew that ſuch conſtructions are wrong and oppreſſive, carry very little weight with them, in the opinion of perſons who gratify their own inclinations in making theſe conſtructions. They CANNOT underſtand the reaſoning that oppoſes their power and deſires. But let it be made their intereſt to underſtand ſuch reaſoning——and a wonderful light is inſtantly thrown upon the matter; and then, rejected remonſtrances, become as clear as "* proofs of holy writ."

The three moſt important articles that our aſſemblies, or any legiſlature can provide for, are—Firſt, the defence of the ſociety: Secondly, the adminiſtration of juſtice: And, thirdly the ſupport of civil government.

Nothing can properly regulate the expence of making proviſion for theſe occaſions, but the neceſſities of the ſociety; its abilities; the conveniency of the modes of levying money among them; the manner in which the laws have been executed; and the conduct of the officers of government: All which are circumſtances that cannot poſſibly be properly known, but by the ſociety itſelf; or if they ſhould be known, will not probably be properly conſidered but by that ſociety.

If money be raiſed upon us, by others, without our conſent, for our "defence," thoſe who are the judges in levying it, muſt alſo be the judges in applying it. Of conſequence the money ſaid to be taken from us for our defence, may be employed to our injury. We may be chained in by a line of fortifications—obliged to pay for the building and maintaining them——and be told, that they are for our defence. With what face can we diſpute the fact, after having granted that thoſe who apply the money, had a right to levy it? For ſurely, it is much eaſier for their wiſdom to underſtand how to apply it in the beſt manner, than how to levy it in the beſt manner. Beſides, the right of levying is of infinitely more conſequence, than that of applying. The people of England, who would burſt out into fury, if the crown ſhould attempt to levy money by its own authority, have always aſſigned to the crown the application of money.

As to "the adminiſtration of juſtice"—the judges ought in a well regulated ſtate to be equally independant of the executive and legiſlative powers. Thus in England judges hold their commiſſions from the crown "during good behaviour," and have ſalaries ſuitable to their dignity, ſettled on them by parliament. The purity of the courts of law ſince this eſtabliſhment, is a proof of the wiſdom with which it was made.

But in theſe colonies, how fruitleſs has been every attempt to have the judges appointed "during good behaviour?" Yet whoever conſiders the matter will ſoon perceive, that ſuch commiſſions are, beyond all compariſon, more neceſſary in theſe colonies, than they were in England.

The chief danger to the ſubject there, aroſe from the arbitrary deſigns of the crown; but here, the time may come, when we may have to contend with the deſigns of the crown, and of a mighty kingdom.* What then muſt be our chance, when the laws of life and death are to be ſpoken by judges totally dependant on that crown and that kingdom—ſent over perhaps from thence—filled with Britiſh prejudices, and backed by a STANDING army——ſupported out of OUR OWN pockets, to "aſſert and maintain" OUR OWN "dependance and obedience."

* Shakeſpears.

But ſuppoſing that though the extreme lenity that will prevail in the government through all future ages, theſe colonies will never behold any thing like the campaign of chief juſtice Jefferys, yet what innumerable acts of injuſtice may be committed, and how fatally may the principles of liberty be ſapped, by a ſucceſſion of judges utterly independant of the people? Before ſuch judges, the ſupple wretches who chearfully join in avoiding ſentiments inconſiſtent with freedom, will always meet with ſmiles; while the honeſt and brave men, who diſdain to ſacrafice their native land to their own advantage, but on every occaſion boldly vindicate her cauſe, will conſtantly be regarded with frowns.

There are two other conſiderations relating to this head, that deſerve the moſt ſerious attention.

By the late act, the officers of the cuſtoms are "impowered to enter into any HOUSE, warehouſe, ſhop, cellar, or other place in the Britiſh colonies or plantations in America, to ſearch for or ſeize prohibited or unaccuſtomed goods", &c. on "writs granted by the ſuperior or ſupreme court of juſtice having juriſdiction within ſuch colony or plantation reſpectively."

If we only reflect, that the judges of theſe courts are to be during pleaſure——that they are to have "adequate proviſion" made for them, which is to continue during their complaiſant behaviour—that they may be ſtrangers to theſe colonies—what an engine of oppreſſion may this authority be in ſuch hands?

I am well aware, that writs of this kind may be granted at home, under the ſeal of the court of exchequer: but I know alſo, that the greateſt aſſertors of the rights of Engliſhmen, have always ſtrenuouſly contended, that ſuch power was dangerous to freedom, and expreſſly contrary to the common law, which ever regarded a man's houſe as his caſtle, or a place of perfect ſecurity.

If ſuch a power was in the leaſt degree dangerous there, it muſt be utterly deſtructive to liberty here. For the people there have two ſecuriſties againſt the undue exerciſe of this power by the crown, which are wanting with us, if the late act takes place. In the firſt place, if any injuſtice is done there, the perſon injured may bring his action againſt the offender, and have it tried before INDEPENDANT JUDGES, who are † NO PARTIES IN COMMITTING THE INJURY. Here he muſt have it tried before DEPENDANT JUDGES, being the men WHO GRANTED THE WRIT.

To ſay, that the cauſe is to be tried by a jury, can never reconcile men who have any idea of freedom, to ſuch a power. For we know, that ſheriffs in almoſt every colony on this continent, are totally independant on the crown; and packing of juries has been frequently practiſed even in the capital of the Britiſh empire. Even if juries are well inclined, we have too many inſtances of the influence of overbearing unjuſt judges upon them. The brave and wiſe men who accompliſhed the Revolution, thought the independency of judges eſſential to freedom.

The other ſecurity which the people have at home, but which we ſhall want here, is this.

If this power is abuſed there, the parliament, the grand reſource of the oppreſſed people, is ready to afford relief. Redreſs of grievances muſt precede grants of money. But what regard can we expect to have paid to our aſſemblies, when they will not hold even the puny privilege of French parliaments——that of regiſtering, before they are put in execution, the edicts that take away our money.

The ſecond conſideration above hinted at, is this. There is a confuſion in our laws, that is quite unknown in Great-Britain. As this cannot be deſcribed in a more clear or exact manner, than has been done by the ingenious author of the hiſtory of New-York, I beg leave to uſe his words. "The ſtate of our laws opens a door to much controverſy. The uncertainty, with reſpect to them, RENDERS PROPERTY PRECARIOUS, and GREATLY EXPOSES US TO THE ARBITRARY DECISION OF BAD JUDGES. The common law of England is generally received, together with ſuch ſtatutes as were enacted before we had a legiſlature of our own; but our courts EXERCISE A SOVEREIGN AUTHORITY, in determining what parts of the common and ſtatute law ought to be extended: For it muſt be admitted, that the difference of circumſtances neceſſarily requires us, in ſome caſes, to REJECT the determination of both. In many inſtances, they have alſo extended even acts of parliament, paſſed ſince we had a diſtinct legiſlature, which is greatly adding to our confuſion. The practice of our courts is no leſs uncertain than the law. Some of the Engliſh rules are adopted, others rejected. Two things therefore ſeem to be ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY for the PUBLIC SECURITY. Firſt, the paſſing an act for ſettling the extent of the Engliſh laws. Secondly, that the courts ordain a general ſett of rules for the regulation of the practice."

How eaſy it will be, under this, "ſtate of our laws," for an artful judge, to act in the moſt arbitrary manner, and yet cover his conduct under ſpecious pretences; and how difficult it will be for the injured people to obtain relief, may be readily perceived. We may take a voyage of 3000 miles to complain; and after the trouble and hazard we have undergone, we may be told, that the collection of the revenue, and maintenance of the prerogative, muſt not be diſcouraged—and if the miſbehaviour is ſo groſs as to admit of no juſtification, it may be ſaid, that it was no error in judgment only, ariſing from the confuſion of our laws, and the zeal of the King's ſervants to do their duty.

If the commiſſions of judges are during the pleaſure of the crown, yet if their ſalaries are during the pleaſure of the people, there will be ſome check upon their conduct. Few men will conſent to draw on themſelves the hatred and contempt of thoſe among whom they live, for the empty honour of being judges. It is the ſordid love of gain, that tempts men to turn their backs on virtue, and pay their homage where they ought not.

As to the third particular, "the ſupport of civil government"—few words will be ſufficient. Every man of the leaſt underſtanding muſt know, that the executive power may be exerciſed in a manner ſo diſagreeable and harraſſing to the people, that it is abſolutely requiſite, that they ſhould be enabled, by the gentleſt method which human policy has yet been ingenious enough to invent, that is, by ſtutting their hands, to "ADMONISH" (as Mr. Hume ſays) certain perſons "OF THEIR DUTY."

† The writs for ſearching houſes in England, are to be granted "under the ſeal of the court of exchequer," according to the ſtatute---and that ſeal is kept by the chancellor of the exchequer. 4th Inſt. p. 104.

What ſhall we now think when, upon looking into the late act, we find the aſſemblies of their provinces thereby ſtript of their authority on theſe ſeveral heads? The declared intention of the act is, "that a revenue ſhould be raiſed in HIS MAJESTY'S DOMINIONS in AMERICA, for making a more certain and adequate proviſion for defraying the charge of THE ADMINISTRATION OF JUSTICE, and the ſupport of CIVIL GOVERNMENT in ſuch provinces where it ſhall be found neceſſary, and towards further defraying the expences of DEFENDING, PROTECTING AND SECURING THE SAID DOMINIONS.

Let the reader pauſe here one moment—and reflect—whether the colony in which he lives, has not made ſuch, "certain and adequate proviſion" for theſe purpoſes as is by the colony judged ſuitable to its abilities, and all other circumſtances. Then, let him reflect—whether if this act takes place, money is not to be raiſed on that colony without its conſent, to make "proviſion" for theſe purpoſes, which it does not judge to be ſuitable to its abilities, and all other circumſtances. Laſtly, let him reflect—whether the people of that country are not in a ſtate of the moſt abject ſlavery, whoſe property may be taken from them under the notion of right, when they have refuſed to give it.

For my part, I think I have good reaſon for vindicating the honour of the aſſemblies on this continent, by publicly aſſerting, that THEY have made as "certain and adequate proviſion" for the purpoſes abovementioned, as they ought to have made, and that it ſhould not be preſumed, that they will not do it hereafter. Why then ſhould theſe moſt important truſts be wreſted out of their hands? Why ſhould they not now be permitted to enjoy that authority, which they have exerciſed from the firſt ſettlement of theſe colonies? Why ſhould they be ſcandalized by this innovation, when their reſpective provinces are now, and will be for ſeveral years, labouring under loads of debt, impoſed on them for the very purpoſe now ſpoken of? Why ſhould all the inhabitants of theſe colonies be, with the utmoſt indignity, treated as a herd of deſpicable ſtupid wretches, ſo utterly void of common ſenſe, that they will not even make "adequate proviſion" for the "adminiſtration of juſtice, and the ſupport of civil government" among them, or for their own "defence"—though without ſuch "proviſion" every people muſt inevitably be overwhelmed with anarchy and deſtruction? Is it poſſible to form an idea of a ſlavery more compleat, more miſerable, more diſgraceful, than that of a people, where juſtice is adminiſtered, government exerciſed, and a ſtanding army maintained, AT THE EXPENCE OF THE PEOPLE, and yet WITHOUT THE LEAST DEPENDANCE UPON THEM? If we can find no relief from this infamous ſituation, let Mr. Greenville ſet his fertile fancy again at work, and as by one exertion of it he has ſtript us of our property and liberty, let him by another deprive us of our underſtanding; that, unconſcious of what we have been, or are, and ungoaded by tormenting reflections, we may bow down our necks, with all the ſtupid ſerenity of ſervitude, to any drudgery, which our lords and maſters ſhall pleaſe to command.

When the charges of the "adminiſtration of juſtice," the "ſupport of civil government," and the expences of "defending, protecting and ſecuring" us, are provided for, I ſhould be glad to know upon what occaſions the crown will ever call our aſſemblies together. Some few of them may meet of their own accord, by virtue of their charters. But what will they have to do, when they are met? To what ſhadows will they be reduced? The men, whoſe deliberations heretofore had an influence on every matter relating to the liberty and happineſs of themſelves and their conſtituents, and whoſe authority in domeſtic affairs at leaſt, might well be compared to that of Roman ſenators, will now find their deliberations of no more conſequence, than thoſe of conſtables. They may perhaps be allowed to make laws for the yoking of hogs, or pounding of ſtray cattle. Their influence will hardly be permitted to extend ſo high, as the keeping roads in repair, as that buſineſs may more properly be executed by thoſe who receive the public cash. One moſt memorable example in hiſtory is ſo applicable to the point now inſiſted on, that it will form a juſt concluſion of the obſervations that have been made.

Spain was once free. Their Cortes reſembled our parliaments. No money could be raiſed on the ſubject, without their conſent. One of their Kings having received a grant from them, to maintain a war againſt the Moors, deſired, that if the ſum which they had given, ſhould not be ſufficient he might be allowed, for that emergency only, to raiſe more money without aſſembling the Cortes. The requeſt was violently oppoſed by the beſt and wiſeſt men in the aſſembly. It was, however, complied with by the votes of a majority; and this ſingle conceſſion was a precedent for other conceſſions of the like kind, until at laſt the crown obtained a general power of raiſing money, in caſes of neceſſity. From that period the Cortes ceaſed to be uſeful,—the people ceaſed to be free.

Venienti occurrite morbo.
Oppoſe a diſeaſe at its biginning.

A FARMER.

BOSTON, JANUARY 25.

One of the firſt Things done by the Houſe of Repreſentatives in the preſent Seſſion of the General Court, as appears by their printed Journals, was the Appointment of a Committee to conſider the State of the Province. The Charter of the Province, and divers antient Acts of Parliament, eſtabliſhing the Rights of Subjects, were read in the Houſe; as well as the late Acts of Parliament eſtabliſhing a Revenue in America, and the Commiſſions of the Gentlemen appointed Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms reſiding here. The aforementioned Committee reported to the Houſe a Letter to their Agent Mr. De Berdt, which, after long Deliberation and Debate, was accepted by a large Majority. Afterwards the ſame Committee reported a humble Petition to his Majeſty, which was in like Manner accepted; as were alſo Letters to divers of the Britiſh Nobility, upon the important Subject of a Taxation of the Colonies, without any Poſſibility of their having a Repreſentation in the Britiſh Parliament. We are told by ſome Gentlemen who have attended in the Gallery, that this Matter is treated in the Houſe with the greateſt Seriouſneſs. It is hoped that the Colonies will be united in their humble Supplications to his Majeſty for Relief; as there is a greater Encouragement to hope for Succeſs, ſince by the Publication in the laſt Week's Papers, it appears that the Sentiments of the greateſt Lawyer in the Nation are in their Favour.

Next Tuesday is assigned by the Hon. House of Representatives to consider of what Applications may be proper to make to the other Colonies, to join in similar Addresses for Relief from our present Burdens and Grievances.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman of Family, Fortune and great Abilities, in a remote Southern Colony, to his Friend in this Town, dated December 5, 1767.

DEAR SIR,

"The Liberties of our common Country appear to me to be at this Moment exposed to the most imminent Danger. But whenever the Cause of American Freedom is to be vindicated, I look towards the Province of the Massachusetts-Bay. She must, as she has hitherto done, first kindle the sacred Flame that on such Occasions must warm and illuminate this Continent. Words are wanting to express my Sense of the Vigilance, Perseverance, Spirit, Prudence, Resolution and Firmness, with which your Province has distinguished herself in our unhappy Times. May GOD ever grant her noble Labours a successful Issue. Our Cause is a Cause of the highest Dignity. It is nothing less than to maintain the Liberty with which Heaven itself hath made us free. I hope it will not be disgraced in any Colony by a single rash Step. We have constitutional Methods of seeking Redress, and they are the best Methods."

NEW-YORK, January 25. Last Wednesday as Colonel Robertson, (barrack-master General of his Majesty's forces in North-America) was riding, his horse took fright near the Fresh-Water and ran full speed down the Broad-Way, till he passed the Oswego-Market; when attempting to turn short round the corner, the Colonel fell and was dangerously hurt, being taken up for dead; but he is since on the recovery.

February 1. We have an account from Jamaica, that Capt. Howell, who sailed from hence in a ship for Pensacola, last October, with 100 soldiers, was cast away at a place called the Commanders, near the island of Jamaica, some time in November last; that the ship was lost, and two men drowned; but that a man of war was dispatched from Kingston to take the people off the place where they were cast away, and was ordered to carry them to the place for which they were destined.

PHILADELPHIA, January 28.

On Sunday the 10th of this Month, a certain Frederick Stump, a German, of Penn's township, in the county of Cumberland, did, in violation of the public faith, and in defiance of all law, inhumanly and wickedly kill, without any provocation, four Indian men and two Indian women in his own house, near the mouth of Middle-Creek, in the said county; and went the next day to an Indian cabbin, about fourteen miles up the said creek, and there barbarously put to death and burnt an Indian woman, two girls, and a young child. For the apprehending and securing of whom, so that he be brought to conviction, the public reward of two hundred pounds, is offered.

FEBRUARY 4. Yesterday came to town, from Carlisle, a gentleman, who informs us, that Frederick Stump, for the taking of whom, two hundred pounds was offered by proclamation, was taken up by Mr. Patterson and a party of about 20 men, and lodged in Carlisle goal the 23d ult. but on the 29th, about 9 o'clock in the morning, the town of Carlisle was entered in a riotous manner, by about 70 or 80 men, on foot, armed with guns, &c. who made the best of their way to the goal, running from the time they entered the town till they got to the goal, into which they rushed, the goal-keeper being secured previous thereto, by two of the rioters, who had a little before entered it, under some pretence, having pistols under their coats; as soon as the body of them got to the goal, they made the best of their way to the dungeon, where they soon knocked off Stump's irons, and carried him, with his servant, John Ironcuter, off, before one half of the people in Carlisle knew any thing of the matter.

The Batchelor's Reasons for taking a Wife.

GRAVE authors say, and witty poets sing,
That honest wedlock is a glorious thing:
But depth of judgment most in him appears,
Who wisely weds in his maturer years.
Then let him choose a damsel young and fair
To bless his age, and bring a worthy heir;
To sooth his cares, and free from noise and strife,
Conduct him gently to the verge of life.
Let sinful batchelors their woes deplore,
Full well they merit all they feel, and more;
Unaw'd by precepts, human and divine,
Like birds and beasts, promiscuously they join;
Nor know to make the present blessing last,
To hope the future, or esteem the past;
But vainly boast the joys they never try'd,
And find divulg'd the secrets they would hide:
The marry'd man may bear his yoke with ease,
Secure at once himself and heaven to please;
And pass his inoffensive hours away,
In bliss all night, and innocent all day:
Tho' fortune change, his constant spouse remains,
Augments his joys, or mitigates his pains.
But what so pure, which envious tongue will spare?
Some wicked wits have libell'd all the fair.
With matchless impudence they stile a wife
The dear bought curse, and lawful plague of life;
A bosom serpent, a domestic evil,
A night invasion, and a mid-day devil.
Let not the wise these sland'rous words regard,
But curse the bones of ev'ry lying bard.
All other goods by fortune's hand are given;
A wife is the peculiar gift of heav'n;
Vain fortune's favours, never at a stay,
Like empty shadows glide and pass away;
One solid comfort, our eternal wife,
Abundantly supplies us all our life:
This blessing lasts (if those who try, say true)
As long as e're a heart can wish---and longer too.
Our grandsire Adam, e'er of Eve possess'd,
Alone and ev'n in paradise unbless'd,
With mournful looks the blissful scenes survey'd,
And wander'd in the solitary shade:
The Maker saw, took pity, and bestow'd
Woman, the last, the best reserve of God.
A wife! ah gentle deities, can he
That has a wife e'er feel adversity?
Would men but follow what the sex advise,
All things would prosper, all the world grow wise.
'Twas by Rebecca's aid that Jacob won
His father's blessing from an elder son:
Abusive Nabal, ow'd his forfeit life
To the wise conduct of a prudent wife:
Heroic Judith, as old Hebrews show,
Prest'rv'd the Jews, and slew the Assyrian foe:
At Esther's suit the persecuting sword
Was sheath'd, and Israel lived to bless the Lord.
Be charm'd with virtuous joys, and sober life,
And try that christian comfort, call'd a wife.
